

---

EDUCATION

Sep 2012 - May 2016

University of Minnesota

Bachelor of Arts in Computer Science
Minor in Marketing and Management

WORK EXPERIENCE

Coldwell Bankers

April 2017 - Current

UX Designer

- Participating in user research sessions and recordings
- Documenting user research results and reporting to UX lead
- Creating wireframes and clickable prototypes
- Gathering requirements from stakeholders
- Prototyping alternative approaches and interactions
- Creating documentations of common UI patterns
- Assisting front end developers with UX related inquiries
- Presenting solutions for homepage experience to generate more leads

Thomson Reuters

Feb 2016 – March 2017

Information Architect - Legal

- Designed wireframes for over 20 new features and interactions for the product
- Gathered business and product requirements while working with technical constraints
- Documented over 50 UI Patterns, allowing for quick page layouts and saving production time
- Presented several design solutions to product, development, and UX team
- Extensively mapped out user flows which solved complications with future deliverables
- Participated in user research studies and documenting insights
- Coordinated with a large team of developers, product owners, designers, and architects
- Prototyped onboarding experience, leading to a delightful first time interaction for users

SparkStarter LLC

Feb 2015 - Feb 2016

UI Designer

- Collaborated with the CEO and marketing team to determine best mobile app design for users
- Created and categorized user personas for incorporating goals, needs, and interests
- Documented design solutions through sketches, wireframes, and interactive prototypes
- Surveyed and documented user experiences for product improvements
- Created product mockups and wireframes for presentations and guidance
- Constructed HTML and CSS templates for the development team
- Implemented front-end fixes on mobile app, using CSS, HTML, and AngularJS
- Audited mobile application for design inconsistencies and performed design fixes
- Established a design approach that can scale across multiple products with common interactions